

Krishnamurti Research Scholarship Programme

The Krishnamurti Centre | Rajghat Fort | Varanasi

Krishnamurti Research Scholarship is given for doing study and research on any aspect of Krishnamurti's teachings, comparative or otherwise, at the Krishnamurti Centre, Rajghat, Varanasi. This residential scholarship is given for an initial period of 6 months which may be extended by mutual agreement. At the end of 6 months the scholar is required to present a seminar in the centre summarizing the findings of his/her research. During the scholarship period the scholar is welcome to participate and volunteer in various activities of the study centre. Under the scholarship a stipend of INR 5000 per month is given apart from free lodging and boarding on the study centre campus. If you are deeply interested in exploring the teachings of J. Krishnamurti, whether from India or abroad, you can apply for this scholarship indicating the area in which you would like to do your study/research along with a bio-data to:
